Operative G T Purdy

Nov. 8th, 1926

RE: BOB ERLING.

Operative interviewed Mrs. Charles Erling, mother of Robert Erling at her grocery store, 218 French Street, New Brunswick this A.M.

Mrs. Erling states that she cannot recall her son coming to her and telling her about being in DeRussey's Lane the night of Sept. 14th, 1922. She further states that she cannot recall whether he was living home or not at that time when he was supposed to have told her this.

Operative asked the reason why her son does not live home and she stated that he wanted to be out in the country more and left home because a woman annoyed him and often threatened his life because one time while he was driving his car he ran over her son who ran out from behind a truck, and killed him. This woman used to come to the Erling store and threaten to shoot him. He left home on that account.

Mrs. Erling was asked if she would make a statement to the fact that she couldnot recall her son coming to her and telling her about being in DeRussey's Lane. She did so and signed same. Her married daughter was present at the time and she also witnessed the signing and signed herself.

Respectfully submitted:
